Fund Manager's Report

Review

The Qatar Stock Exchange index gained 6.23% during the reporting period. While trade and political tensions were roiling global markets, the Qatar market was slowly inching up as it witnessed renewed interest from regional asset managers post Saudi's inclusion in the MSCI emerging markets index. The DSM was lifted by its heavy weights in the midst of a broad based rally; Qatar Islamic Bank, Qatar National Bank and Industries Qatar. They rallied 13.02%, 8.41% and 5.42% respectively.

The fund gained 4.10% during the reporting period, its performance was handicapped by the ex-Qatar allocation and relative underweight in higher beta names such as Doha Bank and Barwa Real estate which had strong months, inching up 11.06% and 8.74% respectively.

In terms of positioning the fund continues to be underweight MESAIED Petrochemicals along with financials and real estate. It maintained its overweight in Industrials, Consumer Staples and Energy. We continue to favor top tier banks among financials and invest in high-quality businesses across various sectors.. There no holding additions or deletions during the month.

Political risk continues to dominate the headlines both globally and regionally. The trade standoff is in full swing as US and Chinese authorities' exchanges stiffen, all hopes lie on the brinkmanship of the deal maker in chief. Regionally, concerns over the navigability of the Arabian Gulf continue to raise questions and add an additional layer of volatility to an overall weak crude price environment as stock piles mount in the US.
