Fund Manager's Report

Review

The Qatar Stock Exchange index dropped 3.5% during the reporting period. The pullback happened towards the latter end of the reporting period as heightened trade and political tensions roiled global and regional markets. The index was pulled down by Industries Qatar, Qatar Islamic Bank and Qatar insurance, which shed 10.45%, 7.76% and 9.13% respectively. A strong performance from Mesaieed Petrochemical and Gulf International Services which were up 23.60% and 17.45% supported index levels.

The fund shed 3.06% during the reporting period, its relative outperformance was on the back of the underweight in Qatar Insurance, down 9.13% and off benchmark Investment, Kuwaiti domiciled Humansoft Holdings which was up 10.43%.

In terms of positioning the fund continues to be underweight Mesaieed Petrochemicals along with financials and real estate. It maintained its overweight in Industrials, Consumer Staples and Energy. We continue to favor top tier banks among financials and invest in high-quality businesses across various sectors. In the midst of a broader regional rally, Qatar market valuations are gradually looking more attractive. During the month, the fund increased its position in off benchmark Kuwait domiciled investment Humansoft Holdings and integrated Holdings.

Political risk made its way to the forefront of the risk spectrum as heightened tensions dominate the headlines both globally and regionally. Hopes of trade standoff resolution were shattered as US authorities imposed a fresh set of tariffs on Chinese imports. Regionally, concerns over the navigability of the Arabian Gulf surfaced after the US imposed sanctions on Iranian Oil exports.
